PRESS RELEASE

JANUARY 2023

Cliveden House Curates an Afternoon Tea
Inspired by the Royal Gardens of King Charles III

With Cliveden’s illustrious royal history, having entertained every British monarch since King George I, it seemed fitting to create a moment in our culinary history to celebrate the accession to the British throne of King Charles III.

In this regal year, when we will celebrate the Coronation of King Charles, award-winning five-star Relais & Châteaux hotel and spa, Cliveden House in Berkshire is delighted to introduce a delicious new afternoon tea menu with sweet delights inspired by flowers that grow in the Kings’ Royal Gardens and savoury treats that use the finest products from Sandringham’s farm, part of the much-loved country retreat of the British Royal Family, which has been the private home to British Monarchs since 1862.

Guests can experience the remarkable 'Great Royal Gardens Afternoon Tea', which is as beautifully presented as it is delicious to enjoy, in the splendid surrounding of the Cliveden Dining Room, overlooking the celebrated Parterre Gardens, part of the 376 acres of National Trust gardens that surround this wonderful property which can be explored at leisure during a visit to Cliveden House for afternoon tea.

Set high above the Thames with far-reaching views, Cliveden's impressive gardens and majestic woodlands capture the grandeur of a bygone age. From the formality of the Parterre with its vibrant floral displays to the quirky statuary and topiary in the Long Garden, the gardens at Cliveden delight in every season, and are the ideal setting to enjoy the ultimate English indulgence.

From "The Kensington Poppy" Seed Cake inspired by the bright red poppy flowers which grow in abundance in the gardens of the official residence of new Prince and Princess of Wales, to the candied "Buckingham Rose" and White Chocolate Bavarois recognising King Charles's birthplace, both sweet treats nod to London's iconic Royal Gardens. The Lavender and Nasturtium Flowerpot, inspired from the Castle and Gardens of Mey, and Sandringham Magnolia and Honey Cake will also share royal billing with The Buckingham Honey and Cheddar Éclair.

Executive Head Chef Chris Hannon looked to Sandringham, the Norfolk estate where King Charles will host future family Christmas celebrations, and its quality fare for his savouries, which include the “Sandringham Potato and Onion” Croquette with Apple Gel, to classic favourite sandwiches.

The Great Royal Gardens Afternoon Tea will run throughout 2023, significantly in May 2023 when His Majesty the King’s Coronation will also take place. The Coronation will reflect the monarch’s role today and look towards the future, while being rooted in long-standing traditions and pageantry. For over fifty years, The King has championed an environmental philosophy to work with nature rather than against it. Cliveden’s Royal Garden Afternoon Tea will celebrate this through Royal flowers, Sandringham quality produce and Cliveden’s florals.

The Great Royal Garden Afternoon Tea is served in The Great Hall on Sundays (from 4.15 pm) and in The Cliveden Dining Room Monday - Saturday (from 12.00 noon).
