

Weddings at Cliveden

The Perfect Setting

Cliveden is unique. The most magnificent setting, fairy tale architecture and opulent interiors all speak eloquently of extraordinary extravagance and remarkable refinement. There is a palpable sense of history, for this is a house that for over 300 years has been dedicated to the pursuit of pleasure, power and politics.

Set amongst 376 acres of National Trust parklands, the House is approached by a spectacular driveway with the iconic Fountain of Love providing visitors with a foretaste of the grandeur to come. The interior of the House does not disappoint the sense of anticipation created by this stately drive and imposing façade.

Guests are treated like royalty - the attention to detail and personalised service are the hallmarks of this renowned country house hotel.

A Very Special House

From intimate gatherings with family and close friends to lavish receptions and marquee weddings with more extensive guest lists, Cliveden is the ultimate venue for an enchanting wedding day.

Standing upon chalk cliffs that gave the estate its name, the House commands panoramic views over the beautiful Berkshire countryside and the River Thames. As you can imagine, the photograph opportunities are simply endless.

With years of experience in creating bespoke weddings, Cliveden's Special Events Team work closely with you to create a truly spectacular ceremony and reception, meticulously crafted and tailored exactly to your requirements.

Civil Ceremonies and Receptions

Cliveden has been a byword for lavish entertainment and fine dining for over three centuries, and this tradition still flourishes today. As you would expect, there is ample choice of rooms in which to hold your civil ceremony and reception.

Most exquisite is The French Dining Room, a Rococo masterpiece and a fantastic setting in which to enjoy the fine cuisine and faultless hospitality which has acclaimed numerous awards and accolades. The Terrace Dining Room is a spacious south-facing room filled with radiant sunlight. With its three impressive chandeliers, six sets of French windows offering panoramic views over the Terrace Parterre and River Thames beyond, it is hard to imagine a grander setting in which to be wed or enjoy a special wedding reception.

Lord Astor's private wine cellar with its brick walls, mighty pillars and vaulted ceiling, makes an unusual and atmospheric reception room and The Boudoir, once Lady Astor's sitting room, is romantically decorated in blue drapes with large windows overlooking the Parterre and lawn.

Exclusively Cliveden, Exclusively Yours

Built out of love by the Duke of Buckingham for his mistress, Cliveden has been the site of passionate duels and tempestuous love affairs over the centuries; it was once even given as a wedding gift!

For the ultimate wedding, exclusive use of this most romantic hotel really does set the stage for an occasion of extraordinary elegance, opulence and style.

Just imagine having the whole House entirely for yourself and your guests, tailored exactly to your needs. Exclusive use includes 37 bedrooms, Spring Cottage, sitting rooms and two restaurants, as well as use of the Pavilion Spa and leisure facilities.

For smaller and more intimate weddings, you may wish to consider the wonderfully secluded Spring Cottage, a tall chimneyed, mock-Tudor house nestling in the woods on the edge of the tranquil River Thames with its private riverside garden and classic 17th century architecture.

Honeymoon Romance and Escapism

With its romantic history, luxurious surroundings and superb facilities, Cliveden is a popular choice for newly-weds. Many couples stay for a night or two before jetting off from nearby Heathrow Airport. Whether you stay in the House or the seclusion of Spring Cottage, you'll be assured a perfect blessing to the start of your marriage.

The beautiful rooms are filled with exquisite furnishings and priceless antiques. The restaurants simply ooze romance with opulent furnishings, incomparable cuisine and exceptional levels of service and The Pavilion Spa, tucked away in the lovely walled garden, offers a unique spa experience in breathtaking surroundings.

A romantic stroll through the grounds or a jaunt down the River Thames aboard one of Cliveden's restored vintage launches, whether a glorious Champagne afternoon tea or a lazy picnic lunch, is the ultimate in sheer effortless honeymoon enjoyment.

"Now join hands, and with your hands your hearts".
