CELEBRATE MOTHER'S DAY AT CLIVEDEN

With the history of Mother's Day dating back to the spring celebrations of ancient Greece, when they honoured the Mother of the Gods 'Rhea', we are bringing our celebrations at Cliveden a little more up-to-date with a selection of special Mother's Day occasions for you to enjoy.

Mother's Day Lunch

The beautiful surroundings of The French Dining Room will be the setting for a delicious three-course lunch, costing £60 per person on Sunday 11th March, when guests to the house will enjoy an indulgent lunch in the 'salon' whose opulent mid-eighteenth century panelling once graced the walls of the Châteaux d'Asnières near Paris, the home for a time of Madame de Pompadour.

In addition, The Astor Grill, the former Duke of Westminster's stables and now a relaxed dining space in the Clock-tower Courtyard at Cliveden, will be offering a delicious three-course lunch menu to celebrate Mother's Day, which also includes a glass of English sparkling wine on arrival. Lunch costs £50 per person.

Tea with a View

With quite possibly the best view from any restaurant in the country, the André Garrett Restaurant will host Mother's Day Afternoon Tea on Sunday 11th March, when guests will have the opportunity to take Champagne afternoon tea in the elegant surroundings of this fabulous restaurant. We are able to offer an early and late tea service, at 12.00 midday or 14.30, to ensure that you have plenty of time to enjoy the view and the delicious themed afternoon tea, which will include a selection of savoury items, freshly baked scones served with Devonshire clotted cream and homemade preserves, and an array of cakes including: Gateau Opera; lemon drizzle cake; pistachio éclair; milk chocolate with hazelnut and praline slice; passion fruit dome and, of course a glass of Taittinger Champagne. The Cliveden Mother's Day Champagne Afternoon Tea costs £54 per person.
