THE FRENCH
DINING ROOM

THE FRENCH DINING ROOM

The French Dining Room is one of the most exquisite and dazzling rooms in the House, filled with light and beautiful views of the river and Berkshire countryside. On a visit to Paris in 1897 William Waldorf Astor was shown the intricate gilded panelling in Madame de Pompadour's 18th century dining room at the Château d'Asnières. Realising the proportions exactly matched those of the dining room at Cliveden he bought the panelling, table and chairs, then had the entire room reconstructed in his home. Seating up to sixty guests, this Rococo masterpiece provides an incomparable setting for a romantic wedding breakfast, impressive lunch or sumptuous dinner.

THE CELLAR DINING ROOM

A unique underground venue with a difference. Once Lord Astor's private wine cellar, the Cellar Dining Room has been beautifully restored and is perfect for a more intimate, informal setting. It has brick walls, mighty pillars and a vaulted ceiling, creating an unusual and atmospheric dining room for smaller parties and private gatherings. It's also perfect for hosting wine tastings.

Width 5.2m

Length 5m

BOUDOIR AND TOTE ROOM

The Boudoir and Tote Room are located on the ground floor of the House, and were the respective interconnecting sitting rooms of Lady and Lord Astor. As such they follow distinct but complimentary styles – the Boudoir is romantically decorated in blue drapes with large windows overlooking the Parterre and lawn, and the Tote is a smaller room with comfortable furniture around a cosy fireplace. Both rooms are available for private functions, and are perfect for meetings, dining, afternoon tea or private events.

WALDO'S

Set in the House's former servants' quarters, Waldo's comprises two interconnecting modern function spaces for meetings and private dining.

With natural daylight, air-conditioning and complimentary Wi-Fi, the beautiful rooms feature a fireplace and many paintings highlighting Cliveden's heritage and history.
